TO AVOID THE "FLU"

First of all, Make Sure Your Blood is Red and Rich—In Fighting Trim Safety In Vigorous Blood

If You're Listless and Depressed Don't Delay a Minute—Get a Good Tonic

If you get the influenza, see a doctor at once—but why get it? Isn't it worth while, instead, to take every precaution now, against getting it?

Probably the best and first thing to do is to make sure you are in good physical condition. During an epidemic, almost wherever you go you are exposed to influenza. As long as you are really well, the red corpuscles of your blood fight off and defeat disease germs. But when you are tired and run down, when you feel all right except that you haven't much energy or enthusiasm, your blood is tired out too, and you are an easy victim.

Pepto-Mangan has become famous as a builder of rich, vigorous blood. It helps you up when you are run down. It helps you avoid illness. Or, it helps you recover, if you realized your poor physical condition too late.

Physicians have been recommending Pepto-Mangan for years, in cases of anemia (bloodlessness). It is reliable, effective, and has a record of over twenty-five years success. Take no chances with a run-down condition. Get Pepto-Mangan today. It is good health insurance.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in liquid and tablet form. There is no difference in medical value. Take either kind you prefer. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—Gode's. The full name should be on the package.

CONSTITUTION SCRAP OF PAPER

Two of Accused N. Y. Assemblymen Pinned to Their Own Words Albany, N. Y., Jan. 30.—Linking up the five accused New York Assemblymen with doctrines of Bolshevism and force, Frank Wasserman, a New York lawyer, at the investigation by the Assembly Judiciary Committee, testified that in public debate with him Assemblyman August Claessens a defendant, had termed the Federal Constitution "a scrap of paper" and had asserted when Socialism came it "would take instruments of production by force."

Wasserman also testified Assemblyman Charles Solomon, another defendant, had admitted in "private discussions" that he was a Bolshevik, believed in Bolshevik tactics and had asserted Sunday school classes were being conducted in the Brownsville section of Brooklyn to make children ready for the revolution."

BERLIN WORRIED

Shooting of Erberger Suspected to be Forecast of Troubles to Come if Guilty are Surrendered

Berlin, Jan. 30.—Indication of the government's growing concern over the extradition of Germans accused of war offenses was given in the note sent to the Allies Wednesday asking revision of clauses of the Versailles Treaty. The attempted assassination of Matthias Erzberger, Minister of Finance, last Monday is viewed in official circles as a precursor of what is likely to happen on a larger scale if the government, yielding to the Allies, appeals to force in arresting men on the list submitted by the Entente powers. Editorial and partisan recriminations, provoked by the attack on the Finance Minister, already have reached the white hot stage.

While it has been commonly known that Wilhelmstrasse would use all its persuasive power in an effort to induce the Allies to desist in their avowed purpose of demanding the surrender of Germans, the shots aimed at Herr Erzberger have made the Cabinet more apprehensive than it has been at any other time relative to the enforcement of the extradition clauses. The note to the Allies, which will not be published in Germany, warns the Entente powers that Germany cannot assume she is able to compel either national or local agencies of the law to pay hands on the new wanted and transfer them to German frontiers.
